To Whom It May Concern:

It is my pleasure to recommend Missy Ohe's leadership services. I have found her to be competent, enthusiastic, and visionary.

I have recently been participating in a group coached by Ms. Ohe, where we have been reviewing John Maxwell's 21 Irrefutable Laws of Leadership. This group has provided networking opportunities with various professionals and given us the chance to delve into each of Maxwell's laws and how they pertain to our own personal and professional experiences. Ms. Ohe's facilitation of this group has been superb, she provides a wealth of knowledge, stimulates thought provoking questions, and challenges the group to incorporate the course material into your daily life. She provides realistic examples and tips on how to improve yourself not only personally and professionally.

In closing I strongly recommend Missy Ohe as a coach for your organizations professional development needs.

Sincerely,
